

VACANCY IN THE AGRO-CHEMICAL INDUSTRY

REGULATORY AND TRIAL OFFICERS / ASSISTANTS

An agro-chemical company with head office in Olifantsfontein (Gauteng) specialising in the development, registration, manufacturing and marketing of high value remedies, additives, plant growth enhancement products and plant nutritional products, has vacancies available for Regulatory and Trial Officers and Assistants. These assignments offer the opportunity for career development in an experienced, well established and innovative company.

Remuneration:	Market related according to experience (negotiable basic salary)
Location:	Olifantsfontein
Job level(s):	Junior / Middle / Senior
Own transport required:	Yes
Type:	Permanent
HR Reference:	Regulatory

The assignment is immediately available. New graduates welcome to apply.

Requirements:

- Compose registration documents and dossiers to register and renew products.
- Liaise with field operators, consultants and laboratories and interpretation of field and analytical data.
- Proven track record with referrals has an advantage in analysing trial and analytical data
- Well-spoken and good communication skills
- Basic understanding of plant science and soil science
- Meticulous accuracy in spelling and grammar
- Advance proficiency in:
 - both Afrikaans and English
 - translation skills from English to Afrikaans and vice versa
 - MS Office
 - attention to detail
- Team player
- Presentable and proactive
- Be able to work under pressure with deadlines

Graduates/ Non-graduates welcome to apply. Persons suitable for the position can email a curriculum vitae to Marie Strydom (HR Manager): marie@nutrico.co.za