

Commercial Seed Manager x 1 Agriculturalist x 3

Job Purpose Statement :

- Contribute to the malting barley development program by implementing the technical program for line development, selection and evaluation for improved malting barley cultivars for the industry.
- Liaise with barley producers and other industry stakeholders to ensure a constant supply of high quality, locally grown malting barley to brewers

Key Roles and Responsibilities

- Execution of the technical program for line development, selection and evaluation
- Generate meaningful and applicable information for the development of improved malting barley varieties.
- Coordinate and schedule the execution of agricultural research and development trials.
- Support a viable program for the production of clean seed for the trials and industry.
- Fulfil export requirements for seed sales into Africa
- Provide information service to barley producers on the cultivation of new malting barley to enhance quality and yield.
- Attend industry meetings and producer contact sessions
- Monitoring crop during growing season and consult with producers on production practices
- Reporting on barley intake quantity and quality to stakeholders

- Minimum qualification: BSc Agric in Agronomy
- Ideally two (2) years' experience in crop production (Cereals).
- SANSOR Diploma (Commercial seed manager)
- Excellent problem solving skills
- Effective data processing and interpretation skills
- Ability to work effectively in a team environment and independently with minimum supervision
- Willingness to travel extensively and work extended hours as required
- EC Driving License

Employment: Permanent/Full Time

Location: Hartswater, Northern Cape, South Africa (Commercial Seed Manager)

Location: Northern Cape, North west, Western Cape (Agriculturalist)

- Interested - send CV's to : Khosi.Mncube@za.ab-inbev.com before Friday 28 June 2019 COD